A Reader's Delight: The HCMNY Fall Book Fair

10/16/13 Wednesday, 6:00-9:00PM Free Event - Registration Required

Harvard Hall will be transformed into a reader's delight at this inaugural event. Biographers, critics, historians, journalists, memoirists, novelists, playwrights, and poets – current Club members have published important works across all literary genres. Have dinner or stop at the bar first, then come meet the authors, browse to your heart's content, and buy their books. Some authors will accept credit cards, many will not; please bring cash.
